BEVERAGE MENU

There is something involved in this that is greater than we are. You can break it down to science and yeasts, but there is something magical. Once you have experienced it, there is nothing else you want to do. The glamour part has nothing to do with it. It is that hard part. It is spending time in the vineyards. It is spending time with your hands, creating. It is working really hard at something that you love."

-- Hardy Wallace
